

A woman with long, wavy blonde hair is standing in a doorway. She is wearing a white, hooded, and heavily torn garment that appears to be made of paper or a thin fabric. The garment is shredded at the bottom and sides, revealing her skin. She is looking down and to her right. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. The text 'KIKI BLOOD' is overlaid in large, blue, sans-serif capital letters across the center of the image.
